LOCAL AFFAIRS.

By Our Regular and Casual Reporters and Correspondents.

Township Committee.

At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Township Committee, a contract for lighting the streets with gas for one year from Oct. 1, was ordered to be entered into with the Montclair Gas and Water Company. The price per 1,000 feet is three cents lower than last year. The contract provides for supplying gas at $2.27 per 1,000 feet, 317 lamps to be lighted, and to burn 4,370 feet of gas each. The cost of extinguishing and keeping the lanterns in order is $2.27 cents each per month. The whole amount of the contract for the year is $4,171.69.

Disbursements to a considerable amount were made for road construction under the contracts made with Mr. McDowell for laying stone roadways.

A contract for laying crosswalks was awarded to M. J. Callahan at 65 cents per foot.

Excelsior Lodge, No. 2,342, K of L, BLOOMFIELD, N. J., SEPT. 30TH, 1886.

The entertainment given under the auspices of Excelsior Lodge, 2,342 K of L, for the benefit of the Charleston sufferers, resulted in about fifty dollars after expenses were paid, which amount will be immediately forwarded to the Mayor of said city, the amount donated by the Lodge, in response to appeal from Supreme Dictator Gratz, on behalf of suffering members of the Order, being taken from the treasury of the Lodge.

The thanks of the Lodge are due to the owners of Library Hall for its use, to the Watessing Band, the Watessing Glee Club and to Miss Garrigues and Miss De Bow. Mr. and Mrs. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Littlejohn, Mr. Beauchamp, Mr. Schill, Mr. Edgerly, Mr. Ferguson and others for kindly assisting in making the entertainment a success.

WILLIS H. CADMUS,
Reporter.

The Jubilee Singers.

Tuesday evening last, the Fisk University Jubilee Singers visited our town. The weather was favorable and as a consequence Library Hall was two-thirds full. From the opening of the entertainment, with the reverent chanting of the Lord's Prayer, until its close with the Benediction, the audience was filled with delight. These people have fine voices and sing with a pathos peculiar to their race. There is nothing artificial about them, and their music appeals to the heart because it is so simple and natural. One of the sopranos, Miss Jennie Jackson De Hart, had a specially fine voice and sang the "Old Folk's at home" as an encore in a most touching manner. Mr. C. W. Payne's tenor voice gave great pleasure. The humble bee song, given by the male quartette as an encore was received with great applause and re-encored. Taken as a whole it was a very enjoyable entertainment.

Wilde-Wood.

October, with its fresh, stimulating breezes, clear skies, and richly tinted foliage is with us again, and we are minded to make the most of the bright days passing so rapidly. Knowing full well that the bleak winds of November are crouching close behind. Now is the time to improve the glorious sunshine, while it lasts, and lay in a store of strength to serve one when the days are dark—the time to take walks up the hillsides of our beautiful town and get a glimpse of the lovely panorama spread before us in all directions. The scene from the bridge at the head of Benson street is very fine. One standing there, at this time, hears the sound of the axe in the hand of the woodman, who is felling trees to make a clearing in the woods owned by Mr. Edward Wilde. We learn that Mr. Wilde will this week commence the erection of a new house in thisylvan retreat, just off of Ridgewood avenue. It is a well-chosen, delightful nook, and in time will become a favorite spot for country homes.

The Old "Thirteenth."

The survivors of the Thirteenth New Jersey of Volunteers met in Newark recently and formed a Veteran organization, of which Col. Frederick H. Harris of Montclair, was made President, Captain A. M. Matthews of Orange, Vice-President; Dr. J. H. Love of Montclair, Treasurer; Albert Delano of Newark, Secretary; and Samuel Toombs, Corresponding Secretary.

The first reunion of the regiment will take place on Wednesday, Oct. 13th in the city of Orange. The Journal of that place says: "On behalf of the citizens of this city we assure them a hearty welcome. We understand that the citizens are already moving in this matter, and that a committee is now at work looking to the giving of a hearty welcome to these veterans of the war."

Glen Ridge Sunday School.

The Bazaar for the Glen Ridge Sunday School building fund will be held, as previously advertised, in Library Hall, Bloomfield, on Friday, Oct. 15; admission, ten cents.

The tables will contain, besides the usual display of fancy articles, aprons of all kinds, stationery, perfumes, confectionery and flowers, in addition to which the refreshment tables will offer for a reasonable price a substantial supper, including chicken salad and fricasseed oysters prepared by Allen of Newark.

Amusement for the children will be found in the Punch and Judy show and the cane toss, while another part of the room, for a small sum, will delight the eyes of all true lovers of art and literature.

Mr. Ragan Coming Again.

Our citizens will be pleased to learn that Mr. H. H. Ragan, whose "Illuminated Towns" were so entertaining last year, is to appear in Bloomfield again next month. Essex H. & L. Co. No. 1 have arranged with Mr. Ragan to appear Nov. 19th, 24th and Dec. 8th in Library Hall. He will present two American tours, "The Heart of the Continent," being a description and illustrative lecture on the Yellowstone and Yosemite Valleys; "A Trip through Old Mexico," which Mr. Ragan says is one of his most interesting tours, and, by request of many citizens, his first foreign tour, "Paris the Magnificent." Course tickets, including reserved seats, have been placed at one dollar. Full particulars may be looked for in later issues of THE CITIZEN.

Real Estate Sales.

Moore and Hayes, Real Estate Brokers, have lately effected the sale of two new houses erected by the past summer upon Clark street by Mr. Gallagher. The purchasers are Mr. M. G. Belloni, of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., and Mr. G. W. Tower of New York.

Mr. Thos. B. Baxter has sold the Simon Brown farm at Brookdale to Mr. Dodd of East Orange, and rented one of Mr. Jacobson's new houses on Broad St. to Mr. Charles Bullock of New York.

National Provident Union.

At the regular meeting of Phil Kearney Council No. 35, held in its rooms in Bloomfield, on Monday, Oct. 4th, the attendance was good. One candidate was initiated and business of importance transacted.

There are seven applicants for citizenship on hand. Under the good and welfare Surgeon Dr. Van Gieson added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Brookdale.

LIVELY ENCOUNTER WITH A TRAMP.

When P. S. Garabrant, an old resident of Brookdale, came in from the field on Thursday evening he found a pair of shoes in his hay cutter in the barn.

When his son and a young man named Jacobus, who is in their employ, came in search was made for the owner of the strong shoes, and a stout young man was found in the hay now wrapped in a blanket that he had taken from a neighboring granary. He had no trousers nor coat on. After a great deal of trouble they induced him to come down to the floor of the barn, when with oaths and cursings he threatened to kill the whole of them and made a rush at Jacobus, striking right and left. Jacobus ran for a gun which was near by, when the man attacked A. P. Garabrant and his father, striking him twice and driving both from the barn. In following them he tripped and fell over a wagon pole just as Jacobus came up with his gun. Before he could recover himself the three men caught the stranger and after a terrible conflict he was secured. He refused to tell where his clothes were, and with great difficulty they put an old pair of overalls on Day. Here he was very abusive, asking that his hands be loosed and saying he would give five years of his life for five minutes freedom in revenge for his arrest. The papers were at once issued and under a strong guard he was taken to an officer at Bloomfield for lodgment in the county jail. The prisoner gave his name as Enoch Hinch.

The Presbytery of Newark.

Has been holding its Fall sessions in the Central Presbyterian church at Newark. At Wednesday's session during the present week the proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. H. W. Ballentine, the retiring Moderator, and Rev. J. K. Henderson was elected his successor.

A communication was presented from sixty members of the Presbyterian church of Montclair, asking permission to form a new Presbyterian church in that place. The desire of the petitioners was granted and a committee was appointed to arrange the time for the organization of the new church. Subsequently this committee recommended that the organization take place on Thursday evening next, and that a commission of the board be appointed to conduct the organization. Rev. J. K. Berry, pastor of the old church, offered in behalf of the session of said church, the use of the church edifice for the commission and the parties interested in the formation of the new church, and his offer was accepted, and the organization will take place there at 7.30 o'clock in the evening.

A report of the Special Committee on a new Mode of Assessment was discussed at considerable length by Rev. Messrs. Craven, Wilson, Haley, Findley and Ballentine, Judge Amzi Dodd and others.

BLOOMFIELD BRIEF LOCALS.

Houses are in demand in Bloomfield, and real estate agents report "everything desirable taken."

The price of coal has been advanced to $5.10 per ton, which will probably be the price for the season.

The anniversary exercises of the S. S. of the First Presbyterian church are to take place on Sunday evening next.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Crapes, a well-known resident of Canal street, took place on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended.

Mr. Thos. B. Cunningham, of Brooklyn, has rented from Moore & Hayes the house on Monroe Place formerly occupied by Rev. S. W. Duffield.

The Beehive stores L. S. Plant & Co. of Newark, N. J. will remain closed until 6 P. M. on Saturday, Oct. 9th, on account of Holiday.

Mr. Fred. Storms and Miss Mary Crapes were united in marriage on Thursday evening of last week by Rev. A. Mann Jr.

Miss M. E. Judd is recovering from the injuries she sustained by a fall on Wednesday while making a call at the residence of Mr. Saxton.

Work has again been resumed at Mr. Corby's quarry on Bloomfield avenue, and large quantities of fine building stone are being removed daily.

Much needed repairs are now being made to the platform at the D. L. & W. depot, and the upper end, where several accidents have occurred in the dark by passengers walking off the end, is now protected by a railing.

The first Annual Statement of the Essex County Building and Loan Association has been published, and will be found in full on the fourth page. The annual meeting of the Association takes place Oct. 19th.

Essex H. & L. Company, No. 1, have secured Prof. H. H. Ragan to deliver a course of three of his popular lectures in Library Hall for their benefit. The dates are November 19th and 24th and December 6th.

The Republican Primary meeting to elect delegates to the Congressional Convention, also to elect delegates to the First District Assembly Convention will be held in Dodd's Hall on Monday evening next.

Wanted, to rent a small house near Railroad Depot. This is one of the most frequent "wants" we have to advertise. Real estate men should note it and guide themselves accordingly. Twenty such houses, costing not more than $2,000, could doubtless be filled with occupants this Fall, if Bloomfield had them.

While the concert given in Library Hall, Tuesday evening, by the Jubilee Singers was in progress, a crowd of boys gathered in front of the building. One of them crowded in a window, opened a side door and the boys took possession of the gallery. When the ushers appeared to drive them out they made a rush for the street, broke open a door, smashed a large pane of glass and did other damage.

VICINITY NOTES.

Montclair.

A well-attended Gospel temperance meeting was held Tuesday evening, in the parlors of the Reform Club, and an address was made by Mrs. George H. Atwood, of Hackensack.

It was expected that the Township Committee, at their meeting Tuesday evening, would demand the resignation of Bonatable Thomas Wiggins, who is alleged, sold some of the Agricultural Fair tickets last week and pocketed the proceeds, but the matter was not brought up. Mr. Carey was chosen temporary chairman during Mr. Russell's absence in Europe, and some routine business was transacted.

Verona.

The excitement among the Verona farmers over the cases of pleuro-pneumonia among the cows of Gilbert B. Pease, continues, although strong hopes are now entertained that the disease was discovered in time to prevent its spread. No new cases have developed outside of Mr. Pease's herd. The third one of his eight cows has died, three more are sick and will probably die, but as yet the remaining two have shown no signs of the dread disease. A careful quarantine is maintained upon both the sick and well animals, and Dr. Mercer, of Montclair, who has charge of the cases, is watching them closely. He has forbidden the use of the milk from any of the herd.

Newark.

At a meeting of the Essex County Trades Association on Wednesday, a letter to Governor Abbott was circulated for signatures. It deals with the recent action of the railroad companies in sanctioning an advance in the price of coal. Governor Abbott is to be asked, to bring the law to bear on the companies.

A number of applications have been made, at the Technical School Building, in West Park street, for admission to the school, and it is now thought over two hundred pupils will be enrolled. The schedule, as arranged by the instructors, is as follows: Preparatory class, two sections, will be on hand twice a week to study arithmetic; first-year class, three sections, will be on hand twice a week to study physics; three times a week to study algebra, and once a week to study drawing; second-year class, two sections, twice a week in chemistry, twice in algebra, and once in drawing; third-year class, one section, three times in geometry and trigonometry, twice in chemistry, and twice in drawing.

Orange.

Thomas McCord, to whom the Orange Board of Education awarded the contract for furnishing about 300 tons of coal to be used in the public schools this Winter, has declined to sign the contract. It will be remembered that the Board declined to accept the bid of a local dealer because the Coal Dealers' Protective Association had determined among themselves who should have the contract and only the one bid was presented. It was then that McCord, who is a wholesaler, put in his bid. His excuse now is that he is not a retail dealer and cannot deliver the coal a car or two at a time as the contract was drawn, but must deliver the whole three hundred tons at once. This is generally believed to be only an excuse, the opinion prevailing that the Dealers' Association have brought their power to bear upon him and that he cannot now take the contract.

The Essex County Toboggan Club, whose slide on the east slope of the Orange mountain, at Orange Valley, proved a great attraction last season, have planned for a much more brilliant season this Winter. At their annual meeting it was determined to build a new slide and give an amateur theatrical performance in Music Hall, some time next month, the proceeds to be used to defray the extra expense.

South Orange.

A brilliant wedding occurred Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. Francis Speer, Ridgewood road, the bride being Miss Ella Speer, and the groom Mr. James M. C. Morrow, the well known lawyer. The spacious grounds about the house were brilliantly illuminated with calcium lights and lanterns, while the interior of the house was converted into a bower of beauty, by a profuse decoration of plants, trailing vines and cut flowers.

East Orange.

The family of Captain Frank Kimball, of No. 20 Walnut street, were aroused about 1 o'clock Tuesday A. M. by the noise of a horse running about the yard. Upon investigation it was found that the barn was on fire. The department was called out, and the flames were extinguished before much damage had been done. There is no doubt that the fire was of incendiary origin and it is the fourth barn that has been set on fire within ten days. It is believed that the incendiaries intended to steal the horse, and also a horse in an adjoining barn, and started the fire to cover their tracks. But the horse broke away from them, started all the dogs in the neighborhood barking, and frightened the rascals away.
